

A weekend celebration of National Quilting Day!

March 16, 10 am - 4 pm and March 17, 12 pm - 4 pm

Start at Farley's Music Hall and receive information and directions to other locations participating in the quilt expo.

FREE Exhibit!
Quilts on display,
Quilts for sale,
Quilt experts providing education,
advice
and so much more

Special Guests and Featuring:
A real-life Quilting Bee at work
Downton Abbey Quilt - an original design from Arkansas quilter Meet Anna Schmidt, the author of Our Scars of Hope - A displayed "Crazy Quit" and how difficult life events in women have been pieced together to achieve healing.
Ann Badash, the very knowledgeable and talented local artist, and her original Redwork prints and quilts Gloria Marienau and her Calhoun County Quilts and the kickoff to their Fall Quilt Show.

Vendors and Door Prizes will add to the fun!

Whether a seasoned quilter, beginner or just curious, enjoy this opportunity to look, listen and celebrate the art of quilting!

For more information, visit EscapeToElsah.com